

Homework 4 part 1

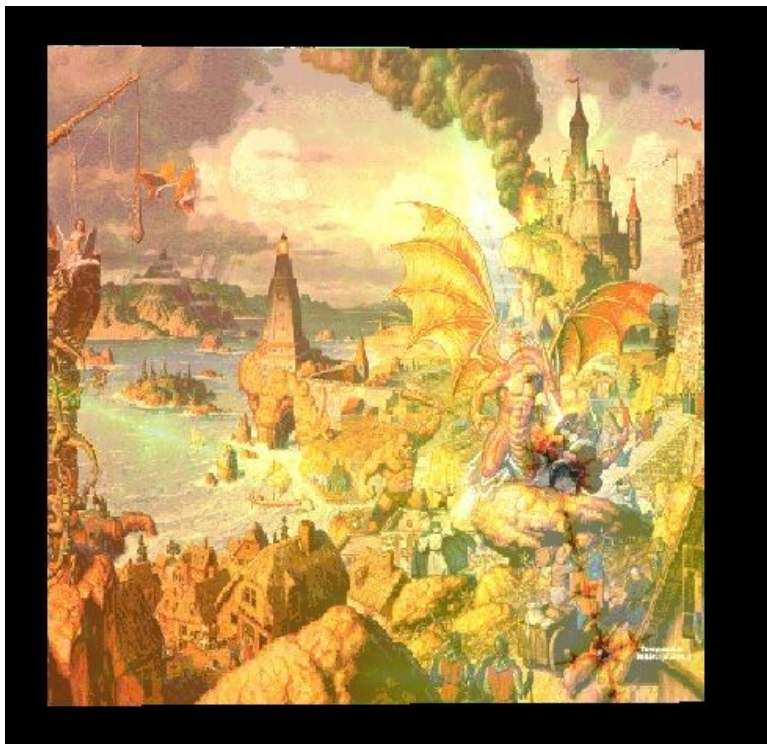

The three image that were selected.

Results

After scaling all three image together and adding them and applying simple blending with each other. Adding the texture together leading to more brighter and vibrant image.

Then another blend was to multiply the texture together that lead to slight darker and clear image compared to the one from above example.